Writing Guideline (F-1)

Everyone has something to share about the Al-Anon program, whether you are a newcomer or longtime member. Al-Anon helps us to recover from the effects of someone else’s drinking, to improve and live happier lives. There are tears, fears, joys and laughter. We’re able to address and respond to the sorrows, miracles, and setbacks, as well as take steps forward that are part of life. Recovery is a journey.

You don’t have to have all the answers, and your story doesn’t have to be perfect. The World Service Office staff will edit for grammar, punctuation and spelling. All you need to do is to share from your heart.

It takes courage to write with complete honesty, but finding that courage is a step forward toward recovery for you and those who read your sharing.

Here are some suggestions to keep in mind when you write your recovery story for The Forum.
- Write in the first person singular (I, me or my) from your own experience. Focus on yourself, not someone else.

- Observe Al-Anon’s Twelve Traditions when sharing.

Topics ideas are as limitless as your imagination:
- The Legacies (select a Step, Tradition or Concept of Service). How does one specifically help you?
- Slogans, e.g. “Easy Does It,” “Keep It Simple,” “Listen and Learn,” “One Day at a Time,” etc. (See index of Al-Anon and Alateen books for additional slogans.)
- Detachment or detach with love.
- Having or being a Sponsor, asking a member to be your Sponsor, having to change Sponsors.
