Help and hope for families and friends of alcoholics

Groups are encouraged to read this letter at two successive meetings and pass around the enclosed envelope.

Quarterly Appeal Letter to Individual Members in Your Group

May 2026

Hello, fellow Al-Anon and Alateen Members,

Al-Anon's 75th Anniversary continues all year. Recently, more than 500 members celebrated this milestone by attending events in and around the World Service Office in Virginia Beach.

We recognize this accomplishment through our 2026 World Service Conference theme:

75 Years, One Purpose

75 ans, un but

75 años, un propósito

Many thousands of people have found recovery from the family disease of alcoholism over those 75 years by practicing our primary purpose as described in Tradition Five. That recovery would not have been possible without all the services provided by the World Service Office listed on the reverse side of this letter. Those services would not have been possible without ongoing contributions from our members.

Each quarter, we write to you as individual Al-Anon/Alateen members to continue the practice of seeking individual contributions to support our mission. Although your group, District, or Area might also contribute, this is your opportunity to make an individual contribution. Please either add your contribution to the envelope as it is passed around your group or look below for other ways to contribute.

With thanks,

David B.
Member
AFG, Inc. Treasurer
