Articles wanted from professionals for Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism magazine

Al-Anon Family Group Headquarters, Inc. is seeking articles from professionals for publication in the next edition of Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism. This magazine is used by Al-Anon members as a public outreach tool. Its purpose is to inform professionals and their clients about Al-Anon Family Groups as a community resource for helping families and friends of alcoholics to recover from the effect of someone else's drinking.

Guidelines to follow when writing:

- Keep your article under 600 words or submit a quote of 100 to 200 words.
- Write your article from your perspective of a professional. If you are a member of Al-Anon or another Twelve Step program, please do not disclose your membership or write about your personal recovery.
- Please include the following:
 - Reasons why you recommend Al-Anon
 - Methods you use to identify patients, clients, consumers, or students who need Al-Anon (i.e. questions you ask)
 - Benefits and improvements experienced by clients/patients as a result of attending Al-Anon

Submission

Articles can be submitted by:

1. Email claire@al-anon.org
2. Fax, (757) 563-1656 Attention: Claire Ricewasser

Publication

- Submission of an article does not guarantee publication.
- Articles will be published using the author's full name, title, organization, city, and state or province.
- Professionals will be notified and asked to review their article or an excerpt if it is selected for publication in Al-Anon Family Group Headquarters, Inc.'s Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism magazine.
- All articles become the property of Al-Anon Family Group Headquarters, Inc. They will be edited as necessary and may be used in whole or in part to develop Al-Anon/Alateen materials.

Permission to Reprint
